

articles closer to young people, giving students an opportunity for critical reflection on these issues and offering a platform for young committed filmmakers to present their work.

The film submissions will be reviewed by a prominent international jury. The short film which is awarded the Jury prize, is endowed with a cash prize and will be shown in the framework of a movie night within the international film festival this human world, which will take place from the 3rd until 13th of December 2020 in Vienna. After the numerous and qualitatively outstanding submissions of the last ten years, we are looking forward to inspiring and exciting contributions from individual students or group works from school classes again in 2020. The competition will be internationally advertised by the UN partner organizations and announced among local educational institutions in Austria, Hungary, Slovakia and Slovenia.

Framework conditions for the competition:

The competition is open to children and teenagers between the ages of 10 to 20. The film entries can be submitted by students individually or as school class. The maximum length of the short films should be 3 minutes. The film entries can be produced and edited using any means provided by the schools and/or available to the students. From professional video camera to phone camera everything is welcome and every genre is allowed.

The Registration for the competition should be send via Email to schulfilmprojekt@thishumanworld.com by the 21 June 2020.

Registration should include:

- * Name and address of the school,
- * Name and contact details of the person of contact in the school (Teacher),
- * Age and number of the participating students
- * The students and legal guardians of minors, by the submission of film entries by their daughter/son, agree that photo and video material of the award ceremony (photos of the winners/interviews with participants) can be published in media and on websites of the issuing institutions (UNIS, UNHCR, THIS HUMAN WORLD), as well as in social networks.

The deadline to submit the film entries for the competition is 6 November 2020.
