

United Nations
Information Service Vienna

Ciné-ONU Vienna
Email: unis.vienna@un.org
<https://unis.unvienna.org>
Twitter: @UN_Vienna
Facebook: @UNVienna
Instagram: UnitedNationsVienna

“7 DAYS - THE OPIOID CRISIS IN ARKANSAS”

By Arkansas PBS (2021 | 53 min, OV English)

Monday, 3 March 2025, 6:30 p.m.
Top Kino, Rahlgasse 1, 1060 Vienna

Free admission | No bookings taken | Admission is first come, first served | Please come early
Accessible for people with a mobility disability

The United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna, in cooperation with the U.S. Mission to International Organizations in Vienna, invites you to the Ciné-ONU screening of the documentary “7 Days - The Opioid Crisis in Arkansas” with opening remarks by U.S. Chargé d’Affaires, ad interim, Howard Solomon.

More information about “Ciné-ONU Vienna”: <https://unis.unvienna.org/unis/en/events/CINE-ONU.html>

Panellists:

Martin Busch

Head of the Addiction Competence Centre of the Austrian National Public Health Institute

Matthew Nice

Manager of the International Narcotics Control Board’s (INCB) Global Rapid Interdiction of Dangerous Substances Programme (GRIDS) | OPIOIDS Project

Perkha Tahir Traxl

UNV Specialist with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)

Anne Thomas

Public Information Officer, UNIS Vienna, Moderator

The film highlights the devastating impact of opioid addiction in Arkansas, following personal stories of individuals struggling with addiction, their families, and those fighting to end the crisis. It explores the progression of addiction, the dangers of fentanyl, and the profound losses caused by opioid misuse. Directed by Emmy-winning filmmaker Nathan Willis and produced by Arkansas PBS, the film features insights from medical experts and law enforcement to educate the public and combat the crisis.

If you would like to receive invitations for Ciné-ONU Vienna film screenings by email, please write to unis.vienna@un.org

Please note the United Nations does not necessarily endorse the views and opinions expressed in films and discussions at Ciné-ONU events