The film is about "Bureau 06", the team of police investigators formed for the intent purpose of investigating and preparing the grave charges brought up by the Jewish people against Adolf Eichmann, for the trial that took place in Jerusalem, 1961. The trial that presented the story of the Jewish Holocaust to the entire world in a way that it had not been told before. "Bureau 06" tells the unique personal and shared stories of this team of investigators, their hardships, their confessions and the emotional turmoil they experienced, together and alone. Among them is the story of Avner Less, Adolf Eichmann's personal interrogator, who spent more than 275 hours with Eichmann and then left Israel after the trial and took back his German Identity card.
