

United Nations General Assembly 75th Session in New York: media access arrangements and services

Temporary media accreditation will not be issued to journalists for the high-level period, to limit the number of people at the United Nations Headquarters complex in New York.

Meetings can be watched live and on-demand on the United Nations Web TV website at <http://webtv.un.org>.

A list of in-person and online meetings, briefings and other events open to the media will be posted daily at www.un.org/en/media/accreditation/alert.shtml.

Members of the media can request documents, statements and press releases from the Media Documents Centre by emailing mdc@un.org.

Photographs in digital format (JPG) will be available for download free of charge on the United Nations photo website (www.unmultimedia.org/photo/).

Digital files of speeches (and audio files in MP3) delivered during the general debate and Security Council meetings can be downloaded from the United Nations Audiovisual Library website (www.unmultimedia.org/avlibrary/) in MPEG-4 (H.264) format free of charge.

Live television feeds will be available through commercial carriers (see www.un.org/en/media/accreditation/pdf/UNTV\_Transmission\_Guide.pdf). For more information, contact Ingrid Kasper (email: kasper@un.org) or Cesar Martin Redi (email: redi@un.org) at United Nations Television.

The United Nations webcast service will provide daily live and on-demand streaming coverage of the high-level meetings and the general debate through the following platforms:

- United Nations Web TV website (webtv.un.org) – live in all six official languages, plus the original language of the speaker
- United Nations channel on YouTube (youtube.com/unitednations) – in English
- Facebook (facebook.com/UNWebTV) – in English
- Twitter (twitter.com/UNWebTV) – in English 128.

Video recordings of each speaker at the general debate will be posted in English and the original language of the speaker on the United Nations Web TV website for on-demand access. Additional webcast coverage will include press conferences, media stake-outs and other meetings and events.
