You are also invited to visit the virtual exhibition

"Forgotten Victims: The Nazi Genocide of the Roma and the Sinti"

This exhibition examines the Nazi genocide against the Roma and Sinti by uncovering the stories of some of those affected by the genocide. It explores the struggle that Roma have had in gaining recognition and compensation for the oppression they experienced as a result of this little-known aspect of Nazi persecution.

The exhibition is organized by the Wiener Holocaust Library with support from The Holocaust and the United Nations Outreach Programme, and is accessible on the UN's exhibitions webpage.
