MEDIA ACCREDITATION

UNIS offers annual media accreditation to the Vienna International Centre (VIC) which gives bona fide media representatives access to all organizations’ conferences and events at the VIC. Applicants need a valid press card and a letter of assignment from their media organization on official letterhead. Journalists can apply online at:

www.unis.unvienna.org/unis/en/media_accreditation.html

The accreditation period runs from December until November the following year and can usually be extended from the beginning of November. Journalists should be prepared to provide evidence of regular coverage of United Nations topics. The Security and Safety Service which issues the VIC grounds passes also requires the national passport. Please note: once your request has been approved, you are asked to collect your badge within three months.

For media accreditation enquiries:
Email: press.vienna@un.org
Press briefings

UNIS organizes press briefings on the work and activities of the United Nations family in Vienna and to promote major United Nations events, conferences and reports.

Press releases

All UNIS press releases are available on our website: www.unis.unvienna.org and accredited journalists can also receive them by email on request.

Press working area

UNIS offers a press working area for visiting journalists in the Vienna International Centre in the C-Building, 3rd floor, C0322-23. The C-Building has wireless Internet access throughout.

For information about all UNIS activities and events see our website: www.unis.unvienna.org.
The Vienna International Centre (VIC) is the headquarters of several United Nations offices and specialized agencies. Many international conferences and events are held annually at the VIC.
